As a new student on the daytime Teacher Education programme, you will take part in a study trip to Denmark's capital city. Together, we will explore how major cultural institutions design and deliver educational programmes for school pupils. We will also discuss the purpose, responsibilities and role of the Danish public school system.

The study trip includes an academic project linked to the course Life Enlightenment.

The project will be completed in groups and presented to fellow students and lecturers upon our return to Haderslev. The study trip is compulsory for all students enrolled in the daytime programme, both Danish and international.
